[1] Timothy BRONSON

A man of God a man of prayers
A house of God he did prepare
And while we worship in it here
He dwells in Heaven that holy place

And she will sleep unheeding all
How calm that sleep, how soft that bed
Till wakened by the trumpet call
That summons home the righteous dead.

At our fireside, sad and lonely
Often will the bosom swell
At remembrance of the sky
How our noble Willie fell

There will be one vacant chair
We shall linger to caress him
When we breath our evening prayer

Our fathers gone Our father's gone, yes, gone to rest Sweetly sleeping on the Savior's breast How much we miss him None can know Our hearts are bleeding, we loved him so the circle will miss him there the sunlight, joy the pride of our home, Has gone to a happier brighter land

Then shall I bathe my weary soul
In seas of heavenly rest
And not a wave of trouble real
Across my peaceful breast

[29] David PHILBROOK

When i can read my title clear
The mansions in the skies
I bid farewell to every fear
And wipe my weeping eyes.

Should earth against my soul engage
And helish darts be harted
Then I can smile at Satan's rage
And face a frowning world
