RECONSTRUCTION OF THE 1890 CENSUS OF HARDWICK, CALEDONIA COUNTY, VERMONT
by Patricia Haslam, C.G. retired

The population of Hardwick per Walton's Register and Business Directory, 1891 was 1481.

Comments were invited about Hardwick, and the granite industry in particular, from historians Elizabeth Dow, president of the Hardwick Historical Society, and Paul Wood:

"The granite industry really got going in Hardwick in 1890 when the village incorporated. The heyday started in 1903 with the Pennsylvania Capitol contract and ended by 1915-18 with George Bickford's death in 1914 and World War I. The peak years were 1913 and 1914. The industry muddled along during the 1920's, being increasingly burdened with labor problems and lower-cost competitive building materials. The Great Depression finally delivered the death blow."

Again, know that the Grand List only enumerates owners of properties.

Before it could be microfilmed, the manuscript of the 1890 census burned in a fire in the 1930s. In an effort to fill the gap left by the absent census, Ms. Haslam compiled this extraordinary list about 2012. She died in 2020.
